Voice interaction hardware connection (Must read)

To run the voice interaction function next, you have to use the voice module included in the AI large model package that goes with the Jetson Orin series mainboard. The online and the offline voice interaction use the same hardware connection; the online mode additionally needs the network and valid credentials for the corresponding platform.

Wiring diagram:

